

NAVAL BASE SAN DIEGO ESSENTIAL STATION MESSING FAQs

Q1: What does ESM/Hybrid operation mean and why are Sailors eating at these selected MWR Food and Beverage locations?

A: ESM stands for Essential Station Messing (ESM). The locations are MWR NAF managed food and beverage operations that feed RIK eligible Sailors at no charge from ESM specific menu options. The ESM program offers a variety of menu options for the Sailors following the Go for Green Galley program. The galley will only serve meals Monday to Friday breakfast and lunch. Dinner, weekend and holiday meals will be available at the designated MWR food and Beverage locations.

Q2: How does ESM work at Corner Pin Café at Admiral Robinson Bowling Center for RIK Sailors?

A: Similar to the Galley, RIK Sailors will go through the front cashier where staff will confirm eligibility. Sailors can order from an ESM specific menu or go through a hotline and select their desired food options.

Q3: Who is allowed to eat at an Essential Station Messing (ESM)? If I am not entitled to RIK, can I still eat at an ESM?

A: RIK Eligible Sailors are allowed to eat at these sites at no charge for ESM specific menu options. Non-RIK eligible and all other patrons can eat at these locations and can purchase ESM menu items under an ESM standard meal rate.

Q4: Will the CS be working at Corner Pin Café at Admiral Robinson Bowling Center as well?

A: Yes, our CS watch teams will be working alongside our MWR team.
