

ATTENTION ACTIVE DUTY MILITARY SINGLE GOLFERS

Admiral Baker and Sea n Air Golf Courses now accepting call-in Active Duty Military single standby golfers.

If you are a single active duty military wanting to play golf during this challenging time, you can call the golf shops for Admiral Baker (619) 487-0090 or Sea 'N Air (619) 545-9659.

THE PROCESS: Call the golf shop letting them know you are an Active Duty single golfer interested in playing golf with other Active Duty single golfers. Standby information required first name, last name, rank, cell phone and desired tee time. Golf staff will put golfer on the standby list. When the golf shop has a minimum of two Active Duty Golfers on standby for chosen tee time they will call golfers to let them know they may come to the golf course. Each Active Duty Golfer takes on the responsibility and understanding this will be at their own risk, playing with other unknown Active Duty golfers. Tee times will require two-golfer minimum per tee time. At no time are singles placed on the golf course. The available tee times for possible pairing for both locations are below. There is no guarantee of pairing call-in Active Duty standby golfers. Golf staff will call standby golfer, if pairing is unavailable for selected time and may offer a later time. Active duty now can get on standby while at the golf course practicing on the driving range or short game areas. As well as calling in for standby. Active Duty single golfers can now make tee times as a single during twilight, if times are available. A single Active Duty making a tee time could be paired with Singles from the standby list.
