

RESOURCES FOR FOREIGN BORN FAMILIES

Centralized Scheduling: 866-923-6478
navylifesw.com/sandiego/families/ffsc
facebook.com/FFSCSD

Fleet & Family Support Center does not endorse the contained information, provided for informational purposes only. FFSC offers counseling and consultant service for military families. Services include Information and Referral, Career Services, Deployment, Relocation, and Counseling. Call 866-923-6478 for more information.

IMMIGRATION AND LANGUAGE SERVICES

NAVY REGION LEGAL

Region Legal offers appointment- only attorney services such as immigration, naturalization, and foreign adoption. It also offers walk-in services for special powers of attorney and notary documents. Immigration 619-556-6748

NAVAL MEDICAL CENTER SAN DIEGO

NMCSD offers a wide variety of foreign language interpreting services and document translation for beneficiaries. 619-532-8255

NAVY MWR DIGITAL LIBRARY

Online services include interactive language lessons, international reports on daily life and cultural customs, and child-friendly publications for elementary-aged children. navymwrdigitallibrary.org

MILITARY ONE SOURCE

Military One Source provides assistance with translation of documents such as immigration and tax paperwork. militaryonesource.mil

U.S. CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES

USCIS offers immigration information and links to resources related to naturalization and expedited application processing for members of the military and their families. 877-247-4645 uscis.gov/military

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF MOTOR VEHICLES

California DMV offers foreign language assistance for the Class C written and audio driver's license exam, as well as interpreter services upon request. 800-777-0133

SAN DIEGO CONTINUING EDUCATION

The SDCE provides free English as a Second Language (ESL) classes as well as Computer Labs, Transition to College, Vocational ESL, and Citizenship classes. sdcce.edu/esl-t/

SAN DIEGO COUNTY LIBRARY

Several SD County Library locations provide free citizenship classes and ESL classes and materials to prepare for the application and interview required for naturalization. sandiego.gov/public-library/services/outreach/newamericans

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

The FTC offers resources and referral for lawyers and accredited representatives for those seeking immigration assistance. ftc.gov/immigration

211

211 connects clients with the best and closest resource in their community. Assistance is offered in more than 200 languages and dialects. 211sandiego.org

HIGHER EDUCATION LEGAL SERVICES

Higher Education Legal Services (HELs) provides FREE immigration legal services to students, staff, and faculty at community and state colleges in San Diego and Imperial Valley Counties. (858) 637-3345 sdmiramar.edu/services/dreamers/legal-aid

UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO SCHOOL OF LAW LEGAL CLINICS

Offers assistance with immigration-related matters including immigrating family members, work authorization, naturalization and derivative citizenship. 619-260-7470 sandiego.edu/law/free-legal-assistance/

INTERNATIONAL RESCUE COMMITTEE (IRC)

The IRC support provides immediate aid, including food, housing and medical attention. IRC provides assistance with interpreting services, document translation and immigration assistance. 1-212-551-3000 rescue.org

RESOURCES FOR FOREIGN BORN FAMILIES

Centralized Scheduling: 866-923-6478
navylifeww.com/sandiego/families/ffsc
facebook.com/FFSCSD

Fleet & Family Support Center does not endorse the contained information, provided for informational purposes only. FFSC offers counseling and consultant service for military families. Services include Information and Referral, Career Services, Deployment, Relocation, and Counseling. Call 866-923-6478 for more information.

MULTICULTURAL ORGANIZATIONS

SAN DIEGO DIPLOMACY COUNCIL

The Council's mission is to create positive professional, cultural, and educational experiences through organizing exchange programs and community events and hosting dinners in local San Diego homes.
sandiegodiplomacy.org

FOREIGN MILITARY SPOUSE ASSOCIATION

This is a platform for members to gather information and resources through relevant article links and to share and discuss personal experiences, thereby educating and advocating on issues related to affected families.
families.foreignmilitaryspouse.com

BAYSIDE COMMUNITY CENTER

The Bayside Community Center offers notary and Spanish translation for a fee, as well as tutoring sessions for anyone who wants to learn how to speak, read, and write in English. 858-278-0771
baysidecc.org

ALLIANCE FOR CALIFORNIA TRADITIONAL ARTS

ACTA promotes and supports various multicultural groups by providing advocacy, resources, and connections for folk and traditional artists both in San Diego and throughout the state.
actaonline.org

ALLIANCE OF AFRICAN ASSISTANCE

The Alliance for African Assistance provides professional and low-cost immigration and naturalization services. 619-286-9052
alliance-for-africa.org

HORN OF AFRICA

This organization promotes the successful integration and physical and emotional health of the East African refugee population. Services include entrepreneurial workshops, childcare training, and health initiatives. 619-583-0532
hornafrica.org

HOUSE OF PACIFIC RELATIONS

House of Pacific Relations represents 33 countries, promoting multicultural goodwill and understanding through educational and cultural programs. 619-234-0739
sdhpr.org

JEWISH FAMILY SERVICES

Jewish Family Services offers citizenship, naturalization, legal assistance and employment assistance to all members of the community. Community Resources: 858-637-3210 Immigration Services: 858-637-3365
jfsd.org/our-services/refugees-immigration/immigration/

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Catholic Charities of San Diego offers assistance with travel documentation, notary services, translations, citizenship, and naturalization. Immigration: 619-287-1270
ccdsd.org

SAN DIEGO JAPANESE COMMUNITY CENTER

The Center preserves, shares, and promotes Japanese and Japanese American culture through social, educational, and cultural programs in the San Diego community. 858-380-5899
azunakai.org

UNION OF PAN ASIAN COMMUNITIES

UPAC offers health and human services to Asian, Pacific Islander, Latino, Middle Eastern, East African, and many other ethnic populations. 619-232-6454
upacsd.com

WORLD BEAT CULTURAL CENTER

The World Beat Cultural Center promotes, presents, and preserves the African Diaspora and Indigenous cultures of the world through music, art, dance, education, sustainability, and technology. 619-230-1190
worldbeatcenter.org