Transferring Resources

MILITARY INSTALLATIONS (MI) BOOKLET:

A great tool for relocation military families to research their new base! Although information may not be available for all locations, it is available for most major installations. Follow the steps below to access the website and your new installation’s downloadable booklet.

- Open your web browser and go to www.militaryinstallations.dod.mil
- Click “View directory of installations” underneath the blue bar that reads “Looking for a particular installation or state?”
- A new window opens. Choose your branch of service and select base from list.
- Name of installation should appear in box under “Enter an installation.” Click “Go”
- To print booklet, choose “Installation Booklet” as last option on left side of screen.
- Select which categories you want included in booklet.
- Choose “Download installation booklet” and it will open in Adobe Reader.

MILITARY INSTALLATIONS (MI) PLAN MY MOVE

- A great tool to utilize as you count down to moving day!
- Open your web browser and go to www.militaryinstallations.dod.mil

- Click “Plan My Move” on bottom right side of screen.
- Scroll down to “Plan My Move” and enter your location and destination information and click “Go”
- A customizable calendar will be created for you.

OMBUDSMAN

The Ombudsman is the official command liaison between the family members and the command. Your Ombudsman’s contact information may be listed in your orders, if not you can call your destination FFSC or go to www.ombudsmanregistry.org to locate them. Be sure to ask your Ombudsman about childcare information, housing and other area resources.
